

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WritingWrite a paragraph based on a picture stimulus of a winter scene. Focus on using interesting sentence openers and vocabulary.  | MathsNegative numbers - Find the temperature in 5 different continents across the world, including Antarctica. Order them coldest to hottest and work out the difference in temperature between each one. | REHow have you demonstrated our school values at home today? Design a poster to show this. Our School Christian Values:Respect, Faith, Hope, Love, Friendship, Forgiveness, Honesty                     |
| ReadingRead a book of your choice.Write a book review.Describe your favourite character.                                                                                                                    | Snow Day Home Learning Activities for Year 5 and Year 6                                                                            | SpellingWrite out your spelling words using different media e.g. paint pens, felt tips, colouring pencils, bubble letters or stencils.  |
| ScienceInvestigate melting and freezing. Collect a small cup of snow (or ice). Try one way to make it melt faster or stop it melting. Write down what you did and what happened after 30 minutes and 1 hour.          | Health &amp; Well-beingBuild something in the snow with your family.                                                                                                                                      |  ArtSketching/Drawing: Find some objects in the home and create a still life drawing of them.                                          |