

What qualities do we need to work with others?

Vocabulary

|                |                                                                                                       |
|----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ethnic         | A sharing of common cultural characteristics.                                                         |
| racial         | A group of people related by descent of heredity.                                                     |
| disability     | Having a physical, emotional or mental disadvantage to others.                                        |
| responsibility | Being accountable for your actions.                                                                   |
| consequence    | The outcome of events after decisions have been made.                                                 |
| respect        | Listening to others viewpoints and not dismissing anyone based on what they believe or how they look. |
| vulnerable     | More likely to be hurt or attacked.                                                                   |
| dependable     | Someone who can be relied on to do the right thing.                                                   |

Key Information

- Respecting yourself is an important step in gaining the respect of others.
- Working together, gives us people to talk to, and to receive support from.
- Leadership is not about bossing people around.

Key Questions

- What does respect mean?
- How do we solve problems?
- What does a good leader look like?
- Why do we need to be responsible?

Cross Curricular Learning

Maths – resourcefulness and problem solving
Townlands Christian Values

Learning Journey

Respect

- To explore how to demonstrate respect.
- To understand how to respect myself.
- To know what respect means and why it is important when working with others.

Problem solving and resourcefulness

- To discuss what it means to problem solve.
- To discuss strategies for problem solving.
- To explore how being resourceful can help with problem solving.

Leadership

- To discuss qualities needed for effective leadership.
- To explore how to lead a team.

Being responsible

- To explore what it means to be responsible and how we can use responsibility to inspire others.
- To know why it is important to be responsible.

Year 5

- Teamwork
- Respecting each other

Year 3

- Relationships with others