

Vocabulary

communicate	The way we pass on information. This can be verbal or non verbal personal information	Information that includes our address, details about ourselves, and bank account details.
trolling	Being hateful or unkind while online.
non-verbal	Communicating without speaking, for example body language or sign language.
diverse	Different and wide ranging.
values	The things that are important to us and that define who we are and what we believe.
rights	Rights are the protections we have in our life that keep us safe and allow us to live our lives.

Key Information

- When in a team, everyone has a part to play to ensure success.
- Communication can take several forms - it's not just talking.
- Respecting the beliefs and cultures of others is a core part of being British.

Key Questions

- What might you say if you disagree with someone's beliefs?
- What is effective teamwork?
- How can we improve our communication skills?

Cross Curricular Learning

RE – understanding and respecting different religious beliefs

PE – Working together in teams

Team-work

Learning Journey

Communicating Effectively

To explore why effective communication is important.

To discuss whether we can believe all communication

To examine how we can improve our communication skills

Respecting others Boundaries and Beliefs

To discuss what respect means and how to respect other people's views and opinions

To examine how we show respect to those with different beliefs.

Supporting the Community

To discuss what a community means and value a community's uniqueness.

To learn about roles within a happy community and value those contributions.

Autism - neurodivergence

To explore what "neurodivergence" means

To know how my actions can help

To know what it is like to receive too much information

Year 4

Respect

Leadership