

Key Vocabulary

Blossom	Flowers that come from a tree
Fruit	Part of a plant that can sometimes be eaten
stem	The stem is the body of the plant
wild plants	A wild plant will grow by itself
seed	The part of a flowering plant that can develop into a new plant
germinate	When a seed forms a small root/shoot

Key Facts

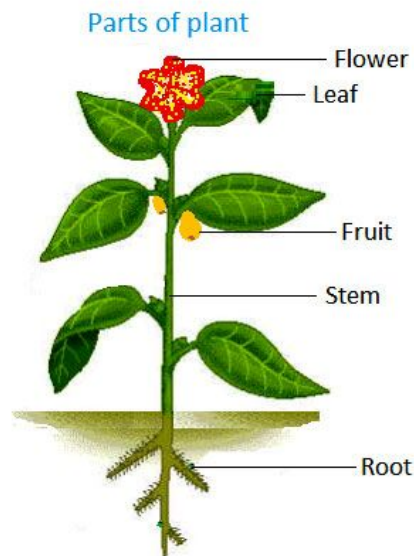

- The main parts of the plant are roots, stems and leaves. The stem of a tree is called the trunk.
- Some plants have flowers. The flowers on a tree are called blossom.
- Not all plants grow the same. Some grow quickly and some grow slowly.
- Some plants make fruit which we can eat.

Key Questions

- What are the parts of the plants called?
- What do plants need to grow?
- How do plants change over time?
- Do all plants grow the same?
- How can we group plants in different ways?

Links to other Learning

- EYFS - ELG: The Natural World
Explore the natural world around them
- Year 2 - Plants
Find out how plants need water, sunlight and a suitable temperature to grow and stay healthy
- Geography - Identify seasonal and daily weather patterns.

Famous Scientist

Luther Burbank
1849-1926

An American horticulturist who worked with plants to improve their quality. He created 800 new species of plants by crossbreeding (mixing) and created a new potato.

